

Dr. Pitt, Au.D. was a longstanding Senior Paediatric Audiologist in Ireland, and Local Lead for Universal Newborn Hearing Screening in South East Ireland, overseeing UNHS rollout in 2011-2012. She trains Nurses and Audiology staff in public and private sectors. Irish National Childhood Screening Guidelines Committee member in 2005. Long-time resident

Audiologist in Wexford, active European Federation of Audiology Societies (EFAS) Committee member. Now a Part-time Lecturer in Audiology for National University of Ireland, Galway, Public Health Nursing department, with her own private practice seeing both children and adults.

Author of several Epidemiology studies, educationalist, originally trained at University of Manchester in 1984 with M.Sc. in 1988 and an Au.D. awarded in 2004.

Past Chairperson, and former General Secretary of EFAS; committee member Irish Academy of Audiology, enthusiastic European.

Recent presentations:

- Paper given on Childhood Hearing Screening at School of Speech and Language Therapy in Nicosia, Cyprus, 2015
- Paper given at IALP, Dublin and Congress session organized on Childhood Hearing Screening Session, August 2016
- Preliminary Paper on latest School Screen Research studies given at IAA Annual Conference, October 2016 and at EFAS Interlaken EFAS Congress, June 2017, where she was Chairperson.
- Papers on Newborn Hearing Screening, and Technology for the Elderly with presbycusis, in Paris World ENT Congress, June 2017.
- Keynote lecture on Newborn Hearing Screening at the Inaugural Croatian Audiology Congress, October 2017.